

Exciting Volunteer Opportunity!

Would you like to be part of an enthusiastic team volunteering with young adults with additional needs?

“In the Making” is a fantastic arts and crafts shop on the second floor in the Harvey Centre. This is run by staff and students from our Supported Studies department at Harlow College. We are currently seeking volunteers to support our learners with craft making and customer service skills.

We would welcome anyone from a creative, retail or SEND background or anyone willing to learn!

In the making is open Wednesday to Saturday between 10:00 until 15:00.

In the Making is part of Harlow College's Supported Studies Department. For more information please pop into the shop and ask for Jo, or call Selina on
