HEALTH, SAFETY AND WELFARE AT WORK POLICY

1. POLICY STATEMENT

- 1.1 At Harlow College the Health, Safety and Welfare of everyone is a priority. The Health and Safety at Work etc Act 1974 imposes a statutory duty on employers to ensure, in so far as reasonably practicable, the health and safety of their employees whilst at work. This duty also extends to others who may be affected by that work.

The co-operation of all employees, contractors, learners and visitors, is vital to the success of the Health and Safety Policy.

- 1.1.1 To enable these duties to be carried out, it is the Corporation's intention to ensure that responsibilities for health and safety matters are effectively assigned, accepted and fulfilled at all levels within the College.

The Corporation will, so far as is reasonably practicable, via the management of the College, ensure that:

- Adequate resources are provided for health and safety;
- Risk assessments are carried out and periodically reviewed;
- Systems of work are provided and maintained that are safe and without risks to health;
- Arrangements for the use, handling, storage, and transport of articles and substances for use at work are safe and without risks to health;
- All employees are provided with information, instruction, training and supervision as is necessary to secure their safety and health at work and the safety of others who may be affected by their actions;
- Where appropriate, health surveillance will be provided to employees;
- The provision and maintenance of all plant, machinery and equipment is safe and without risk to health;
- The working environment of all employees and learners is safe, without risks to health;
- Adequate provision is made with regard to the facilities and arrangements for employees welfare at work;
- There is safe access to and from the work place;
- Monitoring activities are undertaken to maintain agreed standards, to prevent accidents and cases of work related ill health.

- 1.1.2 It is the duty of all employees at work:

- To take reasonable care of the health and safety of themselves and of other persons who may be affected by their acts or omissions at work and co-operate with the College in fulfilling its statutory duties;
- Not to interfere with or misuse anything provided in the interest of health and safety.

- 1.1.3 The College will establish, and maintain, effective procedures for consultation and communication between all levels of management and employees on all matters relating to health, safety and welfare;
- 1.1.4 The Health and Safety Policy will be reviewed annually and amended/updated as and when necessary. Any such changes will be communicated to all employees.
